Description:

The Aubusson and Savonnerie French tapestry workshops continued producing extremely decorative and artistic works throughout the 20th century. This wholly abstract recent creation has a signature C.D Estienne. The designer of the original painting on which this tapestry is based. The dyes are bright and crisp but are all natural. The weavers of Aubusson created works to last centuries and they expect the colors to mellow somewhat over time. This piece may be used on the floor or on the wall in either a vertical or horizontal orientation. The condition is exemplary.
