Description:

A wonderful large antique Isfahan rug. Isfahan rugs are a superb example of Persian artistry—both technically sophisticated and aesthetically refined. Woven in Isfahan, one of Iran's most historically significant weaving centers, these rugs are prized for their precision, harmony, and opulence. The central ivory field filled with floral designs both large and small, the detail shows the extraordinary skill of the master weaver. The main border and multiple guard borders complete this rug and enhance the overall beauty. The rug is Distressed Shabby Chic solid but with low pile.
