Description:

Mahal means many things in the rug world. The antique Persian carpets from the British firm of Ziegler with large scale all over patterns in the most desirable soft color's: rust, ivory, light blue, light green, are Mahal's. So are the repeating pattern rugs of the 1920's-30's with red fields and moderate weaves. The rugs termed Sultanabad's are Mahal's. With this chameleon character, there is a Mahal for any space, any décor, and any price point. Mahal's come from the Mahalat area of western Persia and are almost always in room sizes. Colors: brick/blue-gray/green/ivory/gold.
