

RUGS DESCRIPTION

Rug Number M1802

Title Antique Subdued Persian Isfahan Rug

Size 8ft 08in X 12ft 00in
2m 64cm X 3m 65cm

Description:

Since Shah Abbas 1 (1587 – 1629) established looms within the Imperial palace to weave exceptional carpets this central Persian town has been well known for the quality and style of its output. The town today with a population of over 400,000 is the heart of the country and was chosen by several ruling dynasties as the center of their empire.
