Description:

Vintage Khotan Samarkand Rug 6'3 x 12'3. This wonderful piece has a lovely ivory field filled with a floral design. The rug has a low all over pile that just adds to the patina and gives it this amazing look that works so well with both modern and traditional styles. A stunning example from the crossroads of Central Asia, this Khotan rug hails from Samarkand, once a vital stop along the fabled Silk Road and a gateway between East and West. This piece represents the rich cultural melting pot of the region—where Chinese fretwork, Persian floral influences, and Turkic geometric motifs blend harmoniously in one visual symphony.
