Description:

Vintage Subdued Persian Meshad Rug 10'1 x 12'11. This vintage Meshad rug from northeast Persia showcases a beautifully subdued palette that softens its richly detailed design. The carpet features an all-over arrangement of distinctive palmettes, each rendered with an unusual level of intricacy and connected by graceful scrolling vine work that moves fluidly across the field. Known for their refined craftsmanship and sophisticated floral compositions, Meshad rugs like this one offer both decorative versatility and enduring artistry. Its harmonious colors and thoughtfully balanced pattern make it an exceptional choice for interiors seeking subtle elegance with authentic Persian character.
